Section 2- Definitions

References in this Constitution and By-Laws to "HYFC" shall refer to the organization as set forth in Section 1 above and references to "League" shall refer to the Motherlode Valley Football League.

Section 3- Compliance

The HYFC, its board members, representatives, parents and players, shall recognize, observe and be bound by the By-laws of the HYFC and the Rules & Regulations as set forth by the League. The constitution and by-laws of HYFC shall conform to the authority granted by the League to participate as an organization of the League.

Section 4- Demographics

The HYFC resides in the City of Hughson, County of Stanislaus, California. All corresponding mail shall be sent to Hughson Youth Football, Inc., P.O. Box 811, Hughson, CA 95326.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE AND LIMITATION

Section 1- General Purpose

The general purpose of the HYFC is to provide boys and girls the opportunity to participate in football and cheerleading activities while ensuring the HYFC is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. To maximize our impact on current efforts, we may seek to collaborate with other non-profit organizations which fall under the 501 (c)(3) section of the internal revenue code and are operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes.

Section 2- Specific Purpose

Within the context of the general purpose stated above, the HYFC's specific purposes are:

A. To challenge boys and girls to choose a lifestyle of excellence by using their talent to achieve the highest standards of sportsmanship in football and cheerleading.

B. Provide boys and girls healthy managed sports training and physical development.

C. To ensure all participants are focusing on maximizing self-esteem, character, integrity, maturity, goal setting and cooperation of themselves and others.

Section 3- Powers

The HYFC shall have the power, directly or indirectly alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, to do any and all lawful acts which may be necessary or convenient to affect the charitable purposes, for which the HYFC is organized, and to aid or assist other organizations or person whose activities further accomplish, foster, or attain such purposes. The powers of the HYFC may include, but not limited to, the acceptance of contributions from the public and private sectors, whether financial or in kind contributions.

Section 4- Exempt Activities Limitation

The board will ensure that at all times no part of the net earnings of the HYFC shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the HYFC shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the HYFC shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the HYFC shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Section 5- Distribution Upon Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the organization, all remaining assets must be used exclusively for exempt purpose(s). This includes but is not limited to donations to groups such as charitable, religious or groups dedicated to educational purposes. In the absence of an existing board directing the assets to a specific acceptable charity, all funds are to be donated to the Hughson High School Athletic Department.

Section 4- Nondiscrimination Policy

The board members, representatives, coaches, and players served by the HYFC shall be selected entirely on a nondiscriminatory basis with respect to age, sex, race, religion, national origin, and sexual orientation. It is the policy of the League and HYFC not to discriminate on the basis of race, creed, ancestry, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical disability, veteran's status, political service or affiliation, color, religion, or national origin.

Section 5- State Filing

Hughson Youth Football, Inc. is intended to operate as a non-profit organization and shall maintain a registration form on file with the Secretary of State. The record of HYFC's non-profit status shall be updated annually and on time.

Section 6- Insurance

The HYFC will carry an insurance policy covering accidental medical and general liability. The League will be listed as an additional insured entity on the HYFC insurance policy.

HYFC will provide the League proof of insurance coverage in accordance with the League bylaws. No practice will be allowed until the League has received proof of insurance.

Section 7- League Applications

The HYFC shall complete and submit the required documentation required by the League or the affiliated parent league.

Section 8- Bylaw Amendment

Procedure:

The HYFC will hold an annual by-law review meeting in February of every year. The by-law review shall cover any changes that have been brought before the board by the participating members of the HYFC, as well as any new changes that have been imposed on the HYFC by the League.

HYFC reserves the right to call a special by-law meeting, if needed, at any time during the season. The notification of the special meeting shall follow the rules as lined out in Article III, Section (8)(B).

These by-laws may be amended, altered, repealed, or restated by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the seated board members immediately before the meeting, provided, however,

A. that no amendment shall be made to these by-laws which would cause the HYFC to cease to qualify as an exempt corporation under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code; and,

B. that an amendment does not affect the voting rights of the board members. An amendment that does affect the voting rights of board member further requires

C. that all amendments be consistent with the Articles of Incorporation.

The amended by-laws shall be submitted to the League for approval and documentation purposes within thirty days of approval by the executive board.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1- Grievances

It is the goal of the HYFC to address any and all concerns brought to the board regarding coaching staff, players, rules, and operational issues. All grievances shall follow the HYFC grievance policy. A copy of the grievance policy will be available to each family in the HYFC parent handbook, HYFC SOP's and at the request from the HYFC secretary.

Section 2- Discipline

The purpose of the HYFC's disciplinary procedure is to help and encourage all board members, coaches, players and volunteers to achieve and maintain the required code of ethics and expectations of the HYFC. The aim is also to ensure that the HYFC's services are maintained and effective while all volunteers are treated fairly and equitably. The HYFC shall follow the adopted discipline policy for all violations of the bylaws and/or code of ethics of the HYFC, as well as, any violation of the Leagues bylaws or rules and regulations. HYFC also follows the MVFL Penalty policy as noted in the MVFL Constitution.

Section 3- Standard Operating Procedure

The executive board of the HYFC shall have an established Standard Operating Procedure "SOP" which shall include, but is not limited to:

- A. Football/Cheer practice procedures
- B. Football/Cheer practice times and locations
- C. Itemized annual fee schedule
- D. Participant payment options and timeline

ARTICLE VIII

DOCUMENT RETENTION POLICY

Section 1- Purpose

The purpose of this documentation retention policy is to establish standards for document integrity, retention and destruction and to promote proper treatment of HYFC records.

Section 2- Policy

Records should not be kept if they are no longer needed for the operation of the business or required by law. Unnecessary records should be eliminated from the files. The cost of maintaining records is an expense which can grow unreasonably if good housekeeping is not performed. A mass of records also makes it more difficult to find pertinent records.

From time to time, HYFC may establish retention or destruction policies or schedules for specific categories of records in order to ensure legal compliance, and also to accomplish other objectives, such as preserving intellectual property and cost management.

Several categories of documents that warrant special consideration are identified below. While minimum retention periods are established, the retention of the documents identified below and of documents not included in the identified categories should be determined primarily by the application of the document retention policy.

Section 3- Minimum Retention Periods for Specific Categories

- A. Corporate Documents: Corporate records include the HYFC's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, and IRS form 1023 and Application for Exemption. Corporate records should be retained permanently. IRS regulations require that the Form 1023 be available for public inspection upon request.
- B. Tax Records: Tax records include, but may not be limited to, documents concerning, expenses, proof of contributions made by donors, accounting procedures, and other documents coercing the HYFC's revenues. Tax records should be retained for at least seven years from the date of filing the applicable return.
- C. Board and Board Committee Materials: Meeting minutes should be retained in perpetuity in the HYFC's minute book. A clean copy of all other Board and Board committee materials should be kept for no less than three years by the HYFC.
- D. Banking and Accounting: Accounts payable ledgers and schedules should be kept for seven years. Bank reconciliations, bank statements, repost slips and checks (unless for important payments and purchases) should be kept for three years. Any inventories of equipment, materials, and supplies and any invoices should be kept for seven years.
- E. Insurance: Expired insurance policies, insurance records, accident reports, claims, etc. should be kept permanently.
- F. Audit Records: External audit reports should be kept permanently. Internal audit reports should be kept for three years.
- G. Electronic Mail: E-mail that needs to be saved should be either:
 - 1. printed in hard copy and kept in the appropriate file; or
 - 2. downloaded to a computer file and kept electronically or on a disk as a separate file.The retention period depends on the subject matter of the e-mail, as covered elsewhere in this policy.

ARTICLE IX TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

Section 1- Purpose

By making full and accurate information about its mission, activities, finances, and governance publicly available, HYFC practices and encourages transparency and accountability to the general public. This policy will:

- A. indicate which documents and materials produced by HYFC are presumptively open to the board and/or the public
- B. indicate which documents and materials produced by the HYFC are presumptively closed to the board and/or the public
- C. specify the procedures whereby the open/closed status of documents and materials can be altered

Section 2- Financial and IRS Documents

HYFC shall provide its Internal Revenue forms 990, 990-T, 1023 and 5227, bylaws, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements to the general public for inspection free of charge.

Section 3- Means and Conditions of Disclosure

HYFC shall make “Widely Available” the aforementioned documents by request from the general public for view and inspection through the following process:

- A. Verbal or written request to the secretary of the HYFC executive board
- B. The secretary will disclose the requested documents and materials within seven business days to the person making the request if the documents are not immediately available

Section 4- IRS annual Information Returns (Form 990)

HYFC shall submit the Form 990 to its board prior to the filing of the Form 990. While neither the approval of the Form 990 or a review of the 990 is required under Federal law, the HYFC’s Form 990 shall be submitted to each member of the board via (hard copy or email) at least 10 days before the Form 990 is filed with the IRS.

Section 5- Board

- A. All board deliberations shall be open to the public except where the board passes a motion to make any specific portion confidential.
- B. All board minutes shall be open to the public once accepted by the board, except where the board passes a motion to make any specific portion confidential.
- C. All papers and materials considered by the board shall be open to the public following the meeting at which they are considered, except where the board passes a motion to make any specific paper or material confidential.

Section 6- Sponsor Records

- A. All sponsor records shall be available for consultation by the members and sponsors concerned or by their legal representatives.
- B. No sponsor records shall be made available to any other person outside the HYFC except the authorized governmental agencies.
- C. Within the HYFC, the sponsor records shall be made available only to those persons with the managerial or personnel responsibilities for dealing with those sponsors, except that;
- D. sponsor records shall be made available to the board when requested.
